

Photo competition: Fascinating Irish Flora!

Winners within 8 categories (see below) will be displayed at the NUI Galway Art Gallery May 18–23rd 2012

Submit your best photographs!

Categories 1–6 are open to school-age children:

- (1) Best photograph of Burren plant(s)
- (2) Best photograph of alien/non-native/naturalised plant(s)
- (3) Best photograph of fern(s)
- (4) Best photograph of seaweed(s)
- (5) Best photograph of fruit(s) and/or vegetables(s)
- (6) Best photograph artistic merit

Categories 7 & 8 can be from any category 1–6 and are open to:

- (7) Best photograph taken by an undergraduate student
- (8) Best photograph taken by a members of public (18+), Postgraduate student, or University staff member

Submit your best photos:

- e-mail your images (maximum 2 per person) as an attachment to fascinatingplants@nuigalway.ie with 'Plant photo' as the subject
- deadline: May 10th 2012
- include: image(s) title(s), the category you are applying within, your contact details, and your school and date of birth (if under 18)

In addition to prize winners all photographs submitted will be included on a single combined poster which will be exhibited and can be viewed at the NUI Galway Art Gallery May 18–23rd

Prize winners (chosen by a panel of judges) will be invited with some friends/family to the exhibition opening

A range of exciting prizes!

Sponsors: NUI Galway OÉ Gaillimh, Botany and Plant Science (NUI Galway), School of Natural Sciences (NUI Galway), Algal BioSciences (NUI Galway), The Ryan Institute, Community Knowledge Initiative (NUI Galway), The Arts and Theatre Office (NUI Galway), Plant and AgriBioSciences Centre, Brigit's Garden, Palgrave Macmillan, Charlie Byrne's, Corrib Princess, Evergreen

'Fascination of Plants Day' events see: <http://www.plantday12.eu/> (global) and <http://www.plantday12.eu/ireland.htm> (Ireland)

Fascination of Plants Day
May 18th 2012

NUI Galway
OÉ Gaillimh

Algal BioSciences

community knowledge initiative
a l i v e

BRIGIT'S
GARDEN
GARDIN BHRÍDÉ

evergreen
est. 1982